Fife & Drum
Corps

THE SOUND OF HISTORY

Join Us!

The Guilford Courthouse Fife and Drum Corps are volunteers performing historical music from the Revolutionary War:

- The Corps performs at a variety of public ceremonies, dedications, parades, and strives to support the Guilford Courthouse National Military Park.
- If you are looking for a creative musical outlet combined with volunteer service to the community, the Guilford Courthouse Fife and Drum Corps may be an opportunity for you, your family members, or both.

No danger of the battlefield, just lots of fun performing for audiences! Joining the Guilford Courthouse Fife and Drum Corps, you should be:

- At least 15 years of age (minors must have adult responsible for them) and able to attend regular practices.
- Ready to learn the fife or drum as a first or second instrument (ability to read music encouraged).
- Open to having fun with fellow band members and committed to attending practices, events, and performances.

The Guilford Courthouse Fife and Drum Corps is ready to welcome and teach new members!
